PRIVACY STATEMENT

This privacy policy sets out how CorpAcq adheres to the General Data Protection Regulations and protects your individual privacy and rights to know any detail held.

This policy is effective from 25th May 2018.

Consent

With your consent initially and annually updated we will collate information on:

- Name and company name
- Contact information including email address
- Demographic information such as postcode, preferences and interests
- Other information relevant to our personal and business dealings on which we have your authority to retain

What we do with the information we gather

We require this information in order to simply contact you and provide an understanding of your demands and needs.

In addition we will forward additional information which we feel may be relevant to you or your business which follows the consent as provided.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to enable you to visit other websites of interest easily. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

How we use cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us. You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Controlling your personal information

We don't pass any of your information on to any third party without prior consent.

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so.

You may request details of all personal information which we hold about you which will be as regulation stipulates provided within 30 days of request.

If you would like a copy of the information held on you please write to:
